

Internet Use Guidelines

The Chetco Community Public Library provides access to a broad range of information resources, including resources available through the Internet. We provide free and open access to all types of information for Library patrons of all ages and backgrounds.

All computer users are asked to respect the privacy of other users and not attempt to censor or comment upon what others are viewing. The Library's Code of Conduct and pertinent state, federal, and local laws apply to all Library patrons, including computer users.

Library computers and Wi-Fi may not be used for any illegal activity including, but not limited to:

- Damaging or altering computer equipment, systems, or software.
- Viewing, printing, or sending any material that is illegal, libelous, threatening, or harassing.
- Downloading or installing any harmful program defined as, but not limited to, spyware, viruses, Trojans, malware, or any other illegal utility on any computer.
- Violating copyright or trademark laws, software licensing agreements, or intellectual property rights.

Users engaging in these activities may lose computer privileges and/or be asked to leave the Library. While library staff do not monitor your internet activity, we may summon law enforcement authorities if we observe illegal activity.
